

General Terms and Conditions

Camping Permits

- Camping permits will only be issued under the name of the actual campsite occupant.
- Camping permits will only be issued to persons 19 years of age or older. Proof of age will be required upon check-in.
- A two (2) night minimum reservation is required on holiday weekends.

Camping Fees:

- For a complete list of camping fees please visit www.otonabeeconservation.com.
- Note that fees and services vary from park to park.

Cancellations and Modifications:

- Cancellation and modification fees and refund eligibility vary based on site type (See site type details below).
- Campsite reservations can only be modified or cancelled by the original account holder or a pre-authorized designate.
- Refunds will NOT be given for any of the following reasons including weather (rain, wind, snow, temperature), water quality (beach closures, non-potable water), air quality, wildlife, insects/pests, fire bans, liquor bans, leaving early or where notice is not provided.
- Refunds will be given when a campsite has been deemed unusable by Otonabee Conservation staff for the any of the following reasons including flooding, poor site conditions, and power outages. The reservation holder will be notified within 48 hours of their scheduled arrival date. Under these circumstances a reservation can be transferred to a comparable campsite based on availability. If no comparable campsites are available or the reservation holder decides to cancel, a full refund of camping fees will be given.
- Otonabee Conservation is not obligated to issue a camping permit. Staff may refuse entrance to any person(s) whose conduct is deemed, or may be detrimental to the operation of the conservation area.

Late Arrivals/No Shows:

- The park office must be notified of a late arrival.
- A late arrival is a planned arrival after 11:00 a.m. of the day following your scheduled arrival date. For example, if you're scheduled to arrive on Friday, the reservation is held until 11:00 a.m. on Saturday.
- If notice of a late arrival is NOT provided and the camper does not register by 11:00 a.m. the day following the scheduled arrival date, the reservation is considered a "no-show" and will be cancelled. The campsite will be released as a new booking.
- Up to 2 nights camping fees will be charged, depending on the length of booking. Any remaining camping fees will be refunded to the credit card that was used for the original transaction.
