Fee Schedule Definitions

Day-Use Permit

A day-use area permit authorizes the holder and the other members of the holder's party to enter and remain in the day-use area set out in the permit until checkout time on the day set out in the permit and to park one motor vehicle in a designated parking area.

Other fees may be incurred in addition to day-use fees for certain facilities, programs or retail items not identified in this fee schedule (i.e. equipment rentals, firewood, ice, etc.).

Walk-in Day-Use Permit

Any person entering into a conservation area for day-use purposes not using day-use parking area (i.e. on foot or bicycle).

Camping Permit

A camping permit authorizes the holder and up to five other persons to occupy the camp-site designated in the permit. A holder of a camping permit may park one passenger vehicle on their site.

Camp-site Categories

- Unserviced camp-sites - no electrical or water hookup available.
- Serviced camp-sites - electrical and water hookup and sewage disposal available.

Discounted Fees

Any fee may be subject to a discount at the discretion of the Manager, Conservation Lands Program.

Age Categories

Age categories referred to throughout this fee schedule are as follows:

- Adult - any person from 16 to 59 years of age.
- Child - any person under 16 years of age.
- Senior - any person 60 years of age or over.

Passenger Vehicle

Any vehicle carrying less than ten people including the driver.

Recognized Group

Any group of persons under the supervision of designated leader acting under the authority of a legal entity and where there is an element of guardianship present. This includes Scouting/Guiding/Cadets, School Groups, Social Agencies and specific youth groups.

Group

Any group that does not meet the above definition.

Taxes

All fees listed in this fee schedule are inclusive of any applicable taxes (13% HST).

Operating Policies

This fee schedule is provided as a summary of fees applied by the ORCA at its various operating venues. It does not provide, nor is it intended to provide, complete information as to the various regulations and/or operating policies in effect at these venues which may relate to individual fee schedule items.
